Dear Resident:

The United Way of Kingston, Frontenac, Lennox & Addington will be holding a fundraising music festival on Saturday, September 14th, 2019 from 6 p.m. to 11:00 p.m., doors open at 4:30 pm.

This historic event will be inside the walls of the Kingston Penitentiary. This music festival event is called 'Rockin' the Big House' and features Canadian bands like Headstones, The Trews, The Pursuit of Happiness, Kasador and special guests Tom Cochrane and some members of The Tragically Hip. All bands are playing for free, recognizing the impact United Way has in our local community. The proceeds from this event will go directly to supporting thousands of local residents.

Due to your close proximity to the Kingston Penitentiary, the Rockin' the Big House organizing committee would like to make you aware of the event and assure you that we are taking all possible steps to mitigate any disruption to you and your neighbours.

We have received confirmation from the City of Kingston Bylaw officer that since the land of Kingston Penitentiary is classified as Federal Lands, we are unable to apply for a noise bylaw exemption. However, we are aware of the disruption this event may cause neighbours like yourselves.

Please be assured that we are working closing with several community partners such as the City of Kingston, St. Lawrence Parks Commission, Correctional Service Canada, KFL&A Public Health, City of Kingston Police, St. John Ambulance and Kingston Fire & Rescue to make sure that this event is run in a professional and safe manner.

Event Operating Hours

We are expecting 2,500 guests and the event will take place on Saturday, September 14th 2019. Event gates will open at 4:30pm. Entertainment will start at 6:00pm, and will be finished at 11:00pm. Music will be presented from the main stage from inside the walls of Kingston Penitentiary.

Transportation

There will be limited parking available to the public at the Kingston Penitentiary. Kingston Tour Trolleys and Transit buses will be running throughout the evening to alleviate any possible traffic congestion.

We would like to thank you in advance for your cooperation and we apologize for any inconvenience we may cause you. If you have any questions, comments or suggestions, please feel free to contact me at 613-542-2674 ext.1101 or email ceo@unitedwaykfla.ca.

Hi Kyle

Happy Easter!

I had agreed to work on a proposal to Scott as requested. Now that we have some details I've put this into a document. Some details ie location of event (yard or front entrance), smoking area, vendors, etc will hopefully be finalized after our site visit on Thursday.

In the meantime, would you mind taking a look to make sure I've covered the essential pieces required/desired by CSC. Any guidance you can provide will be very helpful

I see Scott on Monday early afternoon, and plan to share a draft version with him as an update.

Thanks! Appreciate all that you are doing to help with this event

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Get Ready to ROCK in The BIG HOUSE as the United Way Brings the first-ever public concert to
The Kingston Penitentiary

This Historic Concert will bring some of the finest Canadian talent together featuring Headstones, The Trews, The Pursuit of Happiness and Kasador with VERY SPECIAL GUEST Tom Cochrane

KINGSTON, ON. - visitkingston.ca presents ROCKIN' THE BIG HOUSE, in support of United Way of KFL&A, the first-ever public concert to be held on the grounds of the oldest penitentiary in Canada, the Kingston Pen (1835-2013).

On September 14, 2019, 2,500 music lovers, history buffs and curiosity seekers will walk through the gates of The Kingston Penitentiary to experience a music festival like no other in support of The United Way. This rain-or-shine 19+ event will begin at 5pm.

"This coming together of musicians who are both, from Kingston, or attached to Kingston in some way, playing for our United Way is heartwarming. All of the performers jumped at the chance to play for us and to be a part of a concert in this storied venue," says Joanne Langlois, co-chair of the event. "It is important that our community recognizes that all of these bands are donating their time and their talent to The United Way of Kingston, Frontenac, Lennox and Addington."

Hugh Dillon, lead singer of the Headstones is originally from Kingston, but his career in both music and television has taken him to Toronto and LA. "We've been hoping to get back to Kingston for awhile... we couldn't be happier to be part of this historic event in support of the United Way." The Headstones have not played in Kingston since Dec. 2013.

The Trews are this city's adopted sons having developed a huge fan base here, and also having recorded with The Hip's Gord Sinclair at the Bathouse Studio. The Pursuit of Happiness are fresh off of their 25th Anniversary Tour of their album Love Junk and their Guitarist Kris Abbott resides in Kingston. Kasador is a Kingston-based alt-rock band who are beginning to make waves in the industry with their third release "Brood and Bloom" produced by Gord Sinclair and Rob Baker.

"Adding Tom Cochrane to the lineup was such a coup," adds Joanne. "Tom gives so much of himself nationally and internationally already - in fact he was on his way to Vietnam when Paul reached out. To have Tom on this bill, in this venue, is more than the icing on the cake."

The event is made possible through partnerships with The City of Kingston, St. Lawrence Parks Commission, Correctional Service Canada as well as lead sponsors Otter Creek Farms and Spearhead Breweries and platinum sponsors Bergeron Clifford, J.E. Agnew Food Services.

"Thanks to the amazing partnerships that have been formed over the years through the Kingston Pen Tours, we are able to organize this one of a kind event in Kingston," said Scott Harris, Regional Deputy Commissions of Correctional Service of Canada and 2019 United Way Campaign Chair. "We are looking forward to seeing all the bands in this historic venue and really jumpstarting our 2019 campaign with this event."

Guests at the show will enjoy live music, food trucks and restaurants, and beverages from local wineries and breweries.

Tickets for the event will go on sale on May 11th and range from $75 to $200; sponsorship packages and VIP Packages will also be available.

About Kingston Penitentiary <https://www.kingstonpentour.com/>

The Kingston Pen is known for housing some of Canada's most notorious criminals. Since the Kingston Penitentiary was shuttered in 2013, Corrections Canada has been working in conjunction with the St. Lawrence Park Commission to offer public tours of the facility. These tours have been incredibly successful, selling out months in advance of tour dates - highlighting the public's thirst and curiosity for what went on behind the giant stonewalls. In fact, almost 230,000 people have been through the doors of the Kingston Penitentiary for touring purposes.

In 2018 alone, Kingston Pen tours netted approximately $1.3 million. The net profit is split between the United Way of Kingston Frontenac Lennox & Addington and marketing efforts by the St. Lawrence Parks Commission and Tourism Kingston.

Headstones <https://headstonesband.com/>

Founded in Kingston over 25 years ago, this will be somewhat of a homecoming for the iconic Canadian rock band led by enigmatic singer (and actor: Durham County, Flash Point) Hugh Dillon. Headstones have had a long and established career in the Canadian music scene with hits such as "Cemetery" and "When Something Stands for Nothing". Headstones just came off a successful cross-country tour in 2018 and have recently been recording their next record in Bath, Ontario

VERY SPECIAL GUEST: Tom Cochrane <http://www.tomcochrane.com/>

An iconic career which started in the pubs and rough neck bars off the highways of Ontario, then Canada and the the world, has spanned over 4 decades and is characterized by creative, musical and personal integrity.

A few years into his tenure with Red Rider, they graduated to larger venues, halls, arenas and Festival stages. With and without Red Rider, Tom has released 17 albums and remains only one of 3 male artists to have a diamond certified album in Canada (over 1,000,000 Copies sold).

Throughout his career, Tom has thrown his support behind a wide range of worthy causes. He has traveled the world , including Africa 9 times and Asia twice on behalf of World Vision, has performed at Live 8 and, in Tears Are Not Enough video and entertained the troops in Afghanistan. He endorse and supports Waterkeeper's Alliance, Amnesty International, War Child, Medicin Sans Frontiers, World Animal Protection and The United Way.

The Trews <http://www.thetrewsmusic.com/>

Canadian rock music darlings formed in Antigonish, Nova Scotia in 1997 have five albums to their name including their latest 2018 release, Civillians. With songs such as "Not Ready to Go", "Hope and Ruin" and "Highway of Heroes" they quickly made inroads in to the hearts of Canadian music fans.

The Pursuit of Happiness <http://tpoh.net/>

Toronto's Pursuit of Happiness serves as a vehicle for the wry romantic ponderings of singer/guitarist/songwriter Moe Berg and plays a brand of power-pop influenced by Todd Rundgren who produced their first two albums.

TPOH has just come off the road from a sold out tour celebrating 30 years since their debut record LOVE JUNK, featuring their hit single "I'm An Adult Now"

Kasador

Kasador <http://www.kasadorband.com/>

Kingston-based alt-rock outfit Kasador spent their first 3 years cutting their teeth on the road, garnering attention from their engaging and high-energy live performances. Duelling vocals and dynamic guitars provide a strong base for the band, rooted in rock and funk. Kasador wrote and self-produced their debut 2016 EP 'KASADOR', which they toured extensively through Canada and the USA. Since, the band released a follow up 2-track single titled 'Come Get Yer Money' in 2017. Both tracks are featured on their upcoming full length, titled 'Brood & Bloom' produced by The Tragically Hip's Gord Sinclair and Rob Baker - an album written through tough times and trying to find something

On September 14, 2019, 2,500 music lovers, history buffs and curiosity seekers will walk through the gates of The Kingston Penitentiary to experience a music festival like no other in support of The United Way. This rain-or-shine 19+ event will begin at 5pm.

"This coming together of musicians who are both, from Kingston, or attached to Kingston in some way, playing for our United Way is heartwarming. All of the performers jumped at the chance to play for us and to be a part of a concert in this storied venue," says Joanne Langlois, co-chair of the event. "It is important that our community recognizes that all of these bands are donating their time and their talent to The United Way of Kingston, Frontenac, Lennox and Addington."

Hugh Dillon, lead singer of the Headstones is originally from Kingston, but his career in both music and television has taken him to Toronto and LA. "We've been hoping to get back to Kingston for awhile... we couldn't be happier to be part of this historic event in support of the United Way." The Headstones have not played in Kingston since Dec. 2013.

The Trews are this city's adopted sons having developed a huge fan base here, and also having recorded with The Hip's Gord Sinclair at the Bathouse Studio. The Pursuit of Happiness are fresh off of their 25th Anniversary Tour of their album Love Junk and their Guitarist Kris Abbott resides in Kingston. Kasador is a Kingston-based alt-rock band who are beginning to make waves in the industry with their third release "Brood and Bloom" produced by Gord Sinclair and Rob Baker.

"Adding Tom Cochrane to the lineup was such a coup," adds Joanne. "Tom gives so much of himself nationally and internationally already - in fact he was on his way to Vietnam when Paul reached out. To have Tom on this bill, in this venue, is more than the icing on the cake."

The event is made possible through partnerships with The City of Kingston, St. Lawrence Parks Commission, Correctional Service Canada as well as lead sponsors Otter Creek Farms and Spearhead Breweries and platinum sponsors Bergeron Clifford, J.E. Agnew Food Services.

"Thanks to the amazing partnerships that have been formed over the years through the Kingston Pen Tours, we are able to organize this one of a kind event in Kingston," said Scott Harris, Regional Deputy Commissions of Correctional Service of Canada and 2019 United Way Campaign Chair. "We are looking forward to seeing all the bands in this historic venue and really jumpstarting our 2019 campaign with this event."

Guests at the show will enjoy live music, food trucks and restaurants, and beverages from local wineries and breweries.

Tickets for the event will go on sale on May 11th and range from $75 to $200; sponsorship packages and VIP Packages will also be available.

About Kingston Penitentiary <https://www.kingstonpentour.com/>

The Kingston Pen is known for housing some of Canada's most notorious criminals. Since the Kingston Penitentiary was shuttered in 2013, Corrections Canada has been working in conjunction with the St. Lawrence Park Commission to offer public tours of the facility. These tours have been incredibly successful, selling out months in advance of tour dates - highlighting the public's thirst and curiosity for what went on behind the giant stonewalls. In fact, almost 230,000 people have been through the doors of the Kingston Penitentiary for touring purposes.

In 2018 alone, Kingston Pen tours netted approximately $1.3 million. The net profit is split between the United Way of Kingston Frontenac Lennox & Addington and marketing efforts by the St. Lawrence Parks Commission and Tourism Kingston.

So here's my idea for some products.

We talked before about a "tour shirt," what if we did a reverse tour shirt, where instead of a list of all the cities the band has played in, it's a list of all the bands that have played in KP. There would be some bigger Canadian names reaching back quite a ways, and a tag line could incorporate our concert title and be "Rockin the Big House since XX" or "Rockin the Big House for XX years." This would keep in line with our public concert comments, it would build on the historical piece of bands playing in KP and you could even put the names of bands on the hats and toques like collectors items. I believe we just uncovered that Leonard Cohen played here in the 70s, so having his name along with our bands could make a big draw.

Thanks for explaining, Kyle. I wasn't aware of the phrase – it makes sense. I will let the committee know.

Any suggestions on what we can do? (Personally I wish the committee would just stick to the logo, which is approved!!)

Our concerns are the cultural attachments to Straight out of Compton and the black community and issues that we have with the over representation of black men in the correctional system. Having a prison setting use this language and imagery to promote a fundraiser can demonstrate insensitivities to this issue and can be seen as our lack of support for our ethnocultural communities.

Okay. Carolyn, Kyle: Can you share what they are, so I can give feedback to the committee? Any suggestions, Kyle, on what would be okay on a t-shirt and hat?

Subject: United Way event at Kingston Penitentiary

Amy,
As discussed.

For the past 4 years the CSC has been partnering with the City of Kingston and St. Lawrence Parks Commission providing access to Kingston Penitentiary for public tours. These tours have not only allowed cost offsets for maintenance they have also generated funds for youth at risk programs in the Kingston area and have been an incredible vehicle to provide the Canadian public information on our correctional system. This year to further strengthen our relationship with the City, the CSC agreed to expanded the lease agreement to include filming production in support of United Way, to assist in the promotion of the Tours and demonstrate the potential viability of Kingston Penitentiary.

In the fall of 2018, the United Way approached the CSC to partner on a special event to be held on the grounds of Kingston Penitentiary for their major Campaign Kick-off event. The proposed event is a one day music festival that be hosted on the grounds of Kingston Penitentiary on Saturday September 14th. At the event there will be 4-5 bands with special guests performing from 5pm-11pm. There will be food as well as beer and wine from local businesses. Most of the performers and business will be donating there time and product to the United Way for the event.

The CSC would only be providing the venue itself. The United Way would be the organizer taking responsibility for all aspects of the event from municipal approvals, security, set-up, clean-up and restoration of the grounds.

In addition, preliminary discussions between the promoters and CBC to record this event and to highlight the History of Kingston Penitentiary details have not yet been provided.

We have attached the full proposal with a proposed media release and seek your approval for the event.

If there are any questions please feel free to contact.

Regards
